

Central Region Leadership Conference Minneapolis, MN December 1-3, 2006

Chapter Registration Packet

Additional information on breakout session topics and local attractions can be found at www.crlc.mndeca.org

Since 1946 DECA has filled the role of the premier student organization preparing high school and college students for careers in marketing, management and entrepreneurship.

Through DECA's program of activities, and our partnerships with business and industry, our students develop academic, leadership, communication, human relations, employability and civic responsibility skills. DECA's activities and partnerships focus on local, state, national and international programs designed to encourage career exploration and recognize student achievement.

DECA produces many exciting conferences every year – for both our teacher-advisors and our student-members. Within our membership, these conferences build excitement and learning more about marketing, management and entrepreneurship – and for pursing career pathways in these subjects.

The annual DECA Central Region Conference is a 3 day leadership conference designed to energize, educate and even entertain the members in our region! What a great way to jump start your chapter's activities for the coming year!

Some of the highest profile conference opportunities that attendees will be offered during this year's Central Region Leadership Conference include:

- General Sessions including great speakers
- DECA Related Workshops
- Leadership & Industry Related Tracks (workshops)
- State Officer Activities & Recognition
- o Exhibits
- Conference Academies (low ropes course)

CONFERENCE HIGHLIGHTS

◆ Live Action Opening Session ◆

The conference will open with an action-packed Opening Session held at the Minneapolis Convention Center located in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Lights, music and live action will dominate this high-energy session. It is here that participants will Press Play on their conference experience! This session will energize participants for the conference and their entire DECA experience!

◆ Great Speakers ◆ Opening Speaker – Eddie Slowikowski, Speaker/Trainer

Biography

Eddie Slowikowski inspires thousands of people every year with his message of conceiving, believing, and achieving one's dreams in life. Eddie motivates and excites people from all walks of life. His multi-media presentations are filled with personal stories, raw emotion, empowerment skills and audience participation.

Eddie is a graduate of Loyola University with a B.A. in Communications. While he was at Loyola, he had quite an illustrious career in Track & Cross Country. A three time All-American, Eddie holds many records including third fastest indoor mile for the United States (3:58) in Madison Square Garden New York in 1990. He also represented the U.S. at the 1987 Pan Am games, 1990 USA Track & Field team as well as the 1992 Olympic Trials.

He is also the Founder of LifeRide, an organization dedicated to empowering young people for the journey of their lives. Every year Eddie hosts leadership camps for teenagers. Eddie knows what makes the youth of America tick, he's immersed in their lives not only through speaking, but through the LifeRide camp experiences.

Closing Speaker – Michael Peterson

The success of the hit single, "Drink, Swear, Steal & Lie" catapulted Michael Peterson into the national spotlight in 1997 and the follow up release, "From Here To Eternity," earned the singer his first #1 hit. The self-titled debut disc was certified gold and Peterson was recognized as country music's top selling new male artist of 1997 & 1998.

Born in Tucson Arizona in 1959, Michael took the "roundabout" route to Nashville. While growing up in Richland, Washington, he developed a deep appreciation and love of music while spending time with his grandmother and her extensive record collection. She nurtured his interest as he began writing songs, playing his guitar and singing.

Michael enrolled at Pacific Lutheran University on a football scholarship. Although he joined the University chorale his first semester, he had to place his musical aspirations on hold. He worked on his psychology degree and played left offensive tackle on a championship winning team. After graduation, he spent the next twelve years as an inspirational speaker, working with school children across the country.

◆ Educational & Motivational Breakout Sessions ◆

Before the opening session and all day Saturday, participants will have a comprehensive selection of breakout sessions to choose from. Career area breakout sessions will be offered, with numerous sessions in each track, giving students an unbelievable opportunity to develop their skills. Outstanding leaders in their respective professions will present these sessions, which will educate and motivate participants to Press Play on their Future! Check out the conference on the website at www.crlc.mndeca.org for updates describing the numerous different breakout sessions to be offered.

♦ Specialized Tracks 2006 ♦ Presented by Focus Training

Rock On! Leadership Academy

Nellie, Buffet, Rascal Flatts, Green Day--whatever your musical preferences join us to Rock On! Your team will consist of fellow DECA members as a band leader takes you on tour though a musical and leadership development adventure. Your band (or team) will experience a low ropes course designed and directed by FOCUS Training.

Each team will work together to overcome a variety of physical challenges as their band work towards the big concert. In the final "debriefing" rotation participants will sit down to discuss application of the tour and share ideas about how to take their DECA chapters to the next level. Rock On! will be jamming Friday and Saturday in the Hilton Hotel's main ballroom. Preregistration not required.

State Officers Play It! Together

All Central Region State Officers, be they newly elected or halfway through their term will be given tickets to the premier show in town. Come together for the CRLC State Officer Academy where State Officers will share best practices in the areas of: membership development, professional partnerships, and overall promotion of DECA. This interactive academy will be facilitated by former Central Region State and National Officers from FOCUS Training and like all great shows, will end with a state officer pizza party. The show will run on Saturday, December 2, 2006. State advisors will determine if their state officer teams will be participating.

Chapter Presidents' Leadership Academy

i-LEAD

i-LEAD is a pre-registered academy designed to give chapter presidents an opportunity to network, share best practices and refine the tools needed to run a successful local chapter. The i-LEAD playlist focuses on: promotion, membership development, how to manage a local officer team, and how to actively involve you members. Interact, have fun and join together with fellow CRLC chapter Presidents to refine your leadership skills. Be sure to register your president!

Educator Professional Development

Play to your strengths...as an advisor

We want you! (To share the strength of your ideas and methods with fellow advisors!) Check out these interactive professional development sessions, custom made for DECA advisors! In this track, advisors can learn and share techniques for improving their chapter and classroom experience. Join a session and start seeing more productive meetings, more successful competitors, and more effective officers!

◆ Advisor Reception ◆

On Friday night, we have special entertainment planned for the advisors. Refreshments and great conversation await each advisor.

♦iShop it! ♦

Escape to over 520 stores, 50 restaurants and the nation's largest indoor amusement park with more than 30 remarkable rides. Experience lading attractions including Underwater Adventures Aquarium, NASCAR Silicon Motor Speedway, A.C.E.S. Flight Simulator and more! Central Region DECA – here's your opportunity to iShop it! at MALL OF AMERICA!

Advisors, please keep in mind that guests 15 or younger must be accompanied by an adult 21 years or older after 4 p.m. on Saturday. One adult can escort up to 10 students. Anyone under 21 years or younger should be prepared to show a driver's license, state ID card or passport during the Parental Escort hours.

◆ Saturday Night FUN ◆

Do you want to party? Do you want to have a great time? On Saturday night, conference participants will have several evening entertainment choices: DECA Super Dance, games, food and more! Central Region will party at the Minneapolis Convention Center.

HOTEL REGISTRATION & LODGING

Each of the 13 states will be assigned a specific hotel property for their entire state by the DECA Central Region Conference Committee and must reside at that assigned hotel for this conference. All room reservations will be made by Missouri DECA.

You will be notified of your hotel assignment shortly after the deadline of October 18, 2006.

Minneapolis Hilton & Towers	Hyatt Regency Minneapolis
1001 Marquette Ave.	1300 Nicollet Mall
Minneapolis, MN 55403	Minneapolis, MN 55403
612-376-1000	612 370-1234

Student housing is based on four (4) to a room. If a chapter does not have multiples of four (4) delegates of the same gender, Missouri DECA will fill the rooms. Chapters must house the majority of their delegation in quad rooms, so we can ensure that there will be adequate room for all delegates.

If you make arrangements with another school to fill a quad room, please include the name of the school the student is from after his/her name, on the form. Be sure that both schools include the mixed room on the registration form.

Minneosta DECA has requested that all advisors plan to be assigned to a double (2-person, 2 beds) room. Please indicate the name and school of the individual you want to room with, so assignments can be made. Remember to check with your intended roommate first. Also, remember to register your spouse if they will be staying with you during the conference.

Incidental Charges: All incidental charges, (i.e. telephone and movie) must be paid before checking out. There is to be no room service or outside phone calls made from the room. All phones will be restricted so no outside calls can be placed. A credit card imprint must be left if you want to make outside calls. Phone calls can be made from pay phones located throughout the hotel.

Hotel operators have been instructed not to connect any outside or room to room calls after curfew.

Please note that sleeping rooms may not be available upon arrival, so delegates should plan accordingly.

DEFINITION OF ROOM TYPES

- Student Quad Room will consist of two (2) queen beds and no roll-a-ways, or a king bed and two (2) roll-a-ways.
- Advisor Triple Room will consist of a king bed and a roll-a-way.
- Advisor Double Room will consist of two (2) queen beds.
 (One advisor per bed)
- Advisor Single Room will be assigned a room with one king bed.

CHECK-IN PROCEDURE

When you arrive, the advisor from each chapter should pick up the room keys and registration materials from the Missouri DECA State Advisor. The room where keys and materials will be distributed will be posted in the hotel lobby. Please do not go to the front desk to check in.

Please Note: Hotel check-in begins at 3:00 p.m. Please be advised that if you plan to arrive early, your chapter may not be able to receive your room keys until the specified time. There will be luggage storage available for early arrivals.

CHECK-OUT PROCEDURE

Prior to departure, each chapter advisor must make certain that all incidental room charges for their rooms are paid. Check-out is 12:00 Noon.

STUDENT AND ADULT CODE OF ETHICS

All conference participants are to consider this a professional conference and are therefore expected to abide by the DECA Code of Conduct. Every participant must read and complete the Missouri DECA Comprehensive Consent Form. All forms must have required signatures. Although these forms do not need to be submitted with registration materials, chapter advisors are required to bring these forms to the conference. Submit the Missouri DECA Statement of Assurance form that indicates you have completed this requirement.

CHAPERONE CRITERIA

The required chaperone ratio is one advisor per 10 students. All advisors will be responsible for conducting room checks at curfew and to patrol the halls after curfew.

SECURITY

Security will be on duty throughout the conference. Security will strictly enforce the Code of Conduct and Curfew. Security will NOT replace the responsibility of each Advisor conducting room checks at curfew. Curfew is 12:00 a.m.

STATE DELEGATION MEETING

Missouri DECA will hold a state meeting on Friday, December 1 at 4:30 p.m. All delegates must attend this session.

SKYWALK SYSTEM

Minneapolis is home to skywalks! Skywalks are glass-enclosed pedestrian walkways above the streets that allow us to travel from meeting facilities to hotels to restaurants without being troubled by possible weather conditions. The skywalk connects both of the hotels to the Minneapolis Convention Center.

DOWNTOWN BUS ZONE

Getting to and from your hotel, the Minneapolis Convention Center, and most of downtown's major shopping and restaurant locations is easy. Just board any of the Metro Transit buses heading in the direction you want to go (we suggest you try the Nicollet Mall routes) and you pay only 50ϕ . Buses run regularly during day and evening hours, with service frequency every 5-15 minutes depending on the bus and time of day. If you have questions about a Metro Transit route or schedule, contact Metro Transit at 612/373-3333. Look for a Metro Transit bus shelter or bus stop and catch a ride!

LIGHT RAIL

Zoom around town on the brand new Hiawatha Light Rail! Electrically-powered rail cars bring transportation on tracks back to Minneapolis for the first time in 50 years (when the last streetcar was operational)!

Getting around Minneapolis is a breeze with 17 rail stations between the entertainment-packed Warehouse District in downtown Minneapolis and the shopper's paradise – Mall of America in Bloomington. With additional stops at the Minneapolis/St. Paul International Airport, Historic Fort Snelling, restaurants along Hiawatha Avenue, the H.H.H. Metrodome and various locations along 5th Street in downtown – the Hiawatha Line can provide a full day of entertainment and still get you to the airport on time!

Designed to work in tandem with existing public transportation, Metro Transit bus routes connect with LRT stations – transfers between bus and rail are valid if used within 150 minutes. Train fares are $1.25 (non-rush hour) or $1.75 (rush hour – weekdays 6-9 a.m. and 3-6:30 p.m.). Visit Metro Transit's website: http://www.metrotransit.org/rail/index.asp.

CONFERENCE DRESS CODE

The following Dress Code has been developed for all students, advisors, alumni, and guests attending the 2006 CRLC.

From the opening session until the end of the closing session, students, advisors and professionals shall adhere to the following Dress Code requirements. It is the Chapter Advisor's responsibility to see that their students, professionals and they comply with the rules established for proper dress code. Advisors should monitor their students' dress at all functions. Business representatives, press personnel, hotel staff and guests will be seeing DECA's finest members—show them a professional business image.

Professional Attire for the Opening Session and Workshops

Missouri DECA members must follow the Professional Dress Code as approved by Missouri DECA's Board of Directors. The following constitutes "professional attire:"

Males

Suit or sport coat or DECA blazer

Tie

Collared dress shirt

Slacks

Dress socks (no sport/athletic socks)

Dress shoes (i.e., no athletic shoes)

Females

Professional dress, business suit (skirt or dress slacks), business skirt/pants and blouse with jacket or DECA blazer

Pantyhose/trouser stockings

Dress shoes (no flip flops, athletic footwear, etc.)

The following items are not allowed: Denim, athletic shoes, sweat and T-shirts, shorts and hats.

In the professional world, it's important to be "Dressed for Success." Missouri DECA's Fashion Board will be looking for those members whose professional attire exceeds our dress code. Those designated individuals will receive an exclusive "Dressed for Success" pin to wear!

During the Closing Sessions

Participants may wear Business Casual attire or Denim if they are also wearing their conference shirt.

Business Casual Attire During Selected Conference Activities

(Activities specifically stating that business casual attire is acceptable) Khaki (Docker) style pants with a collared dress shirt or polo style shirt, or a sweater, is acceptable business casual attire. Shirts must have sleeves and no bare mid drift. Skirts and shorts must be at least finger tip length.

Casual - During Dances and Free Time

(Includes when schedules are picked-up and meals at the State Conference)

Neat casual clothing is acceptable. Shoes must be worn when in public areas. Items not acceptable include hats, bathing suits (unless at the pool), and suggestive attire. Shirts must have sleeves and no bare mid drift. Skirts and shorts must be at least finger tip length.

CLOTHING MUST BE NEAT AND IN GOOD REPAIR.

CONFERENCE SHIRTS

Each registered conference participant will receive a conference shirt. Please use the registration form to indicate the sizes needed for the participants in your chapter. If a size is not indicated, a large will be ordered. This number must coincide with the number of paid attendees from your chapter.

CONFERENCE EXPECTATIONS

DECA is a student-centered, national organization whose program of leadership and personal development is designed specifically for students enrolled in Marketing Education or who have a career goal in the fields of marketing, management and entrepreneurship. DECA is co-curricular, designed as an integral part of the classroom instructional program. The goals of DECA are:

- to develop leadership characteristics
- to develop self-confidence and self-acceptance
- to develop a greater understanding of our free, competitive enterprise system
- to further develop occupational competencies needed for careers in marketing, management and entrepreneurship
- to develop high ethical standards in personal and business relationships
- to develop effective international relationships
- to develop a greater awareness of career opportunities
- to develop greater proficiency in communication
- to develop greater appreciation of the responsibilities of citizenship
- · to develop a healthy competitive spirit
- to develop social and business etiquette

DECA members have the opportunity for involvement at the local, state, regional, and international levels. Several conferences are held each year at the various levels, each addressing many of the goals of DECA. At the state and national levels these conferences are normally two- to five-day events, requiring students to stay overnight in the conference hotels.

To be eligible to attend the Central Region Leadership Conference, the student must have earned the right to attend by demonstrating desire to participate fully in all scheduled conference activities, and a commitment to live by the DECA Code of Conduct while attending. Permission from the local advisor, the school and the student's parent/guardian to attend is also required.

To assist in supervision of the conference, security will perform the following activities:

- 1. Walk the hotel floors to monitor behavior.
- 2. Monitor appropriate dress at sessions and breakout sessions.
- 3. Ensure that students are wearing nametags to conference activities.
- 4. Monitor curfew each night at 12:00 (Midnight).
- 5. Ensure that there are no food deliveries (both student and advisor) after curfew.

Responsibilities of the advisors for the Central Region Leadership Conference are as follows:

- 1. The advisor will be responsible for all aspects of the trip including travel arrangements, selection and discipline of students, emergency situations, and notification to parents of all aspects of the trip.
- 2. The advisor must provide all students with a written copy of all rules and trip procedures.
- 3. The advisor will be responsible for student supervision, room checks, curfew and bed checks, etc.
- 4. The advisor will be responsible for maintaining a file of all signed agreements from the students and/or parents.
